Seeking Peace

Prelude: “Bagatelle” by Ludwig Van Beethoven

★ Introit: “Like a Healing Stream” 🎵 MV #144

Welcome

One: The death of six Muslim men at prayer in their sanctuary casts a deep shadow in this Epiphany season of light. We come to worship mourning the loss of life to violence, the loss of peace to intolerance, the loss of safety to brokenness. We think of the victims. We think of their families and community. We think of the killer and his family. Today, we seek healing and a way forward in love.

All: Seeking true community, we welcome all who have no church home, need strength, and are seeking deep meaning. Welcome to those who have doubts or who do not believe. Welcome to those whose faith is sure, and to those who believe, but who are asking large questions.

One: Welcome to visitors and to familiar friends.
Welcome to grandparents, to mothers, fathers, youth and children, couples, and single people.

All: Welcome to people of all colours, gender identities, abilities, and sexual orientations.

One: Welcome to each who is searching for meaning, who is seeking an understanding of community and what it means to accompany one another.

All: As we come together as church, we turn to one another with gratitude and pray that we will be strong together, faithful together, and loving together. We seek the blessing of the light in this shadowy wintertime, and the confidence that no matter how long the night, love abides.

Joys, Concerns, and Greeting One Another

Today as we greet one another, find two people. Offer your hand to each and this blessing, "Peace be to you." When you have greeted two people, return to your seat and in silence, let the peace you offered to others sink into your spirit.

★ Children's Song: "Dance with the Spirit"      🎵 MV #156

Story Time

Following the story, the children will leave for their own learning time. Happy "living in the light." For babies and toddlers, there is the Family Worship Space at the back of the sanctuary. Each week, there will be an adult present so that the children can play and be cared for and parents can worship. Parents are free to come and go from that space, according to the needs of their children.

Peace and Justice

Ministry of Music: “This Little Light of Mine” arr. Moses Hagan
(soloists: Midori Marsh and River Guard)

Scripture: Matthew 14: 22-23 (NT, pg.16)

About Scripture

Today we read the story of Jesus’ walking on water and Peter’s trying to do the same.

The story begins with the disciples out on the Sea of Galilee making a crossing to the other side. They have just been with Jesus as he fed the 5000. Now, Jesus has gone off by himself to pray and renew his spirit. The disciples set off alone for their next encounter with the crowds.

We know that a storm comes up and the disciples are afraid. In their terror, they see Jesus walking towards them. He stills the storm and challenges them about their fear and lack of trust.

Peter is moved by the appearance of Jesus and asks to be out on the sea with him. In the asking, Peter’s faith is steady and he trusts that Jesus’ power to love is enough to keep him from drowning in fear. However, once out in danger, Peter begins to be terribly afraid. Once he fears more than he trusts, he loses his power to survive and sinks into the deep. Jesus needs to rescue him from his terror.

We are all like Peter in the face of the storms of life. We all succumb to our smallness and powerlessness when facing the powers that be. We often feel like we are sinking and in danger of losing ourselves.

Courage does come by trusting in the capacity of love to heal and save. And courage comes when we choose to act together rather than acting alone. Faith is buoyant. Faith lifts us up. Faith is our courage and the source of peace that abides in any storm.

So owning our “Peter” selves and acknowledging that the storms of injustice are raging, we hold onto our faith and to one another as we dare to make peace.

Reflection: “Peters of the World-Rise Up!” Rev. Meg

★ Hymn: “My Love Colours Outside the Lines” 🎵 MV #138

Sharing Blessing

Offertory: “Nearer, My God, To Thee” arr. Joel Raney

Dedication: “Christ Has No Body Now but Yours” 🎵 MV #171, v.4

Offering Prayer, said by All:

We know that storms of cruelty and injustice swirl around us. We know that our gifts can ease the storm and help bring peace. So we give as we are able. We give our offering. We give our hope. We give our commitment to rise up and name injustice. We give our love to create acceptance and peace. Amen.
